Salary Supplement Reporting - Part I

In accordance with Texas Government Code, Section 659.0201(i), each state agency (agency) and higher education institution as defined by Section 61.003 of the Texas Education Code, receiving a gift, grant, donation, or other consideration from a person that is designated to be used as a salary supplement for a named person, position, or endowment shall report certain information to the State Auditor. This questionnaire is designed to collect that information, which will be reported to the Legislature. Any questions concerning the interpretation of this section of the Texas Government Code should be directed to your agency's or higher education institution's legal counsel.

Please complete this section of the questionnaire (Part I) and return it to the State Auditor's Office. Questionnaires should be e-mailed directly to Kendra Campbell at kcampbell@sao.state.tx.us, no later than 11/05/2013. Please note that reporting requirements that are specified in Article IX, Section 3.02, General Appropriations Act (83rd Legislature), should be reported separately. To report information as required by Texas Government Code, Section 659.0201 (d), please complete Part II of this questionnaire.

3. How does your agency or higher education institution use gifts, grants, donations, and other considerations it receives? (Please specify whether those items are used to provide salary supplements for your agency's or higher education institution's employees.)

Gifts, grants, donations and other considerations are used in accordance with donor's specified intent if given for a restricted purpose. Some gifts, grants, donations and other considerations are given for unrestricted use. When funds are received for unrestricted use, then they are used for a purpose that supports the mission of the institution, which can include student scholarships, presidential initiatives, equipment purchases, programs and support of faculty. This usage could include supplementation of salary.

Many faculty and staff have salaries that are supported by research grant funds, while very few are funded from gifts and donations. Some faculty or staff may receive additional pay related to revised work assignments or merit payments that are funded from research grants, gifts or donations. However, in FY 2013 these additional payments to faculty and staff were not from sources received by the institution from a person that designated they be used as a salary supplement for a named person, position or endowment.

Salary Supplement Reporting - Part II

In accordance with Texas Government Code, Section 659.0201(d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) each state agency (agency) and higher education institution receiving a gift, grant, donation, or other consideration, in an amount or having a value that exceeds $10,000 from an entity created solely for the support of an agency or higher education institution, that is designated to be used as a salary supplement for a named person, position, or endowment, shall report certain information to the State Auditor. This questionnaire is designed to collect that information, which may be reviewed by the State Auditor's Office to identify any conflicts of interest or any other areas of risk. The State Auditor's Office will report audit results to the Legislature. Any questions concerning the interpretation of this section of the Texas Government Code should be directed to your agency's or higher education institution's legal counsel.

Please complete this section (Part II) of the questionnaire and return it to the State Auditor's Office. Questionnaires should be e-mailed directly to Kendra Campbell at kcampbell@sao.state.tx.us, no later than 11/05/2013. Please note that reporting requirements that are specified in Article IX, Section 3.02, General Appropriations Act (83rd Legislature), should be reported separately. To report information as required by Texas Government Code, Section 659.0201 (i), please complete Part I of this questionnaire.
