'High Fever' tickets on sale

Have you always wanted to see Dr. Wayne English sing and dance? How about Dr. Carl Everett and Dr. Al Pressley? If so, you will have your opportunity to see these doctors and many many more make their stage debut tonight and Saturday night at the William Eddington Scott Theater. What will they be doing? Participating in the Fort Worth Osteopathic Hospital musical revue High Fever.

Proceeds from the production will go to benefit the hospital's $7.4 million expansion and renovation program.

The High Fever program is being directed by Ron Tiegland with The Jerome H. Cargill Producing Organization, Inc. of New York City. A native of Racine, Wisc., Tiegland is in his 12th year with the Cargill Organization and has produced over 100 shows. His first show was in Racine and starred Barbara McNair.

Other TCOM faculty participating in the revue include Drs. Paul Saperstein, Roger Roberts, Hugo Ranelle, Raymond Beck, Carl Everett, Stan Briney, W.R. Jenkins, Lynn Powell, H.E. Pearson, Robert Hames, David Bilyea and Gary Earp.

Staff members singing and dancing their hearts out are Carol Keller, Lela Breckenridge, Laurie Wayman, Joan Sexton, Tom Wise and Verlie McAlister.

Students and student wives participating are Betty Rinker, wife of student Don Rinker; student Jens Skarbovich and his wife, Julie; Veanda Jones, wife of student Billy Jones; student Bob Henderson; and Lorene West, wife of student Bill West. TCOM alumnus Dr. Doug Morrow is also participating.

Tickets for the musical revue are $7 each and the donation is tax deductible. For ticket information call the TCOM Public Information Office at ext. 62 or 63 or the High Fever office at 731-4311

Get you family and friends and come see High Fever either tonight or Saturday night at the Scott Theater.

Regents meeting today

The North Texas State University Board of Regents, TCOM's governing body, is meeting in regular session today in the Board Room of the Administration Building in Denton.

Holiday scheduled

In observance of Independence Day, TCOM and its clinics and the library will close July 4 and 5. The clinics and offices will resume regular schedules July 6.

Casa Manana tickets available

Discount tickets to Casa Manana's 1977 season are now available to TCOM employes and students, according to Dr. Walter Brake, director of personnel. Regular $6.50 tickets for Monday through Thursday performances will cost $5.85 and the $7.50 tickets for Friday and Saturday performances will cost $6.75. Discount tickets may be purchased from the Personnel Office and then must be redeemed at the Casa Manana ticket office for an admission ticket.

Remaining productions for the 1977 season are "My Fair Lady," June 13-25; "Gigi," June 27-July 9; "Annie Get Your Gun," July 11-23; "Brigadoon,"

July 25-Aug. 6; "Showboat," Aug. 8-20; "Promises, Promises," Aug. 22-Sept. 3; and "An evening with Florence Henderson," Sept. 5-10.

New discounts for employes

The TCOM Personnel Office has announced three new discount programs available to faculty and staff from Hall's Pharmacy, Monticello Hair Shop and Gillette Tire Distributors. Hall's Pharmacy, located at 4201 Camp Bowie and 1008 Pennsylvania Ave., is offering a 10 per cent discount for counter items and a special price on prescriptions. The Monticello Hair Shop, located at 3607 W. 7th, is offering a $1.50 discount on any haircut or style. The Gillette Tire Distributors, located at 719 N. Main, is offering warehouse net prices on the purchase of tires, batteries, custom wheels, mounting and balancing. For more information on these and other discounts available to employes, contact the Personnel Office.

Construction ahead of schedule

Construction on TCOM's Medical Education Building I is ahead of the contract scheduled completion date of June 1979, according to Don Denney, construction manager. With approximately three-fourths of the pre-cast manufactured, construction on TCOM's first new building is about one-fourth complete, he said. Denney said the floor to the second level has been poured and the Frank J. Rooney Construction Co. is pouring the floor to the first level this week. "Soon after June 24, the walls to the second floor will begin arriving,'

CME credits being sent to AOA

The Office of Medical Education has announced that it is sending a list of the teaching faculty and the clinicians who serve as preceptors or observers for TCOM students to the American Osteopathic Association with the number of hours each instructor has served in a teaching capacity. These hours will be entered as continuing medical education credits under category 1-C of the AOA Division of Continuing Medical Education, according to Dr. J. Warren Anderson, assistant dean for medical education. Each hour of instruction will equal one hour of credit, with a maximum of 30 hours over a threeyear period to count toward the 150
