

6-18-1976

Dateline - v.1 no.14 June 18, 1976

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.hsc.unt.edu/dl>

 Part of the Osteopathic Medicine and Osteopathy Commons

Recommended Citation

"Dateline - v.1 no.14 June 18, 1976" (1976). Dateline. Paper 14.
<http://digitalcommons.hsc.unt.edu/dl/14>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at UNTHSC Scholarly Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Dateline by an authorized administrator of UNTHSC Scholarly Repository. For more information, please contact Tom.Lyons@unthsc.edu.

sclerosis," DR. MICHAEL W. EMMETT-OGLESBY, assistant professor of pharmacology, "Rate-related Effect of D-Amphetamine When Reinforcement Probability Is Held Constant," DR. KAMAN, DR. JOHN GALEWALER, clinical associate professor of osteopathic philosophy, principles and practice, and DR. CHARLES RUDOLPH, fourth-year student, "Mineral Excretion Patterns During EDTA Chelation Therapy."

DATELINE is published every other Friday for members of the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine community, Verlie McAlister, editor. Deadline for submission of written material is noon Monday before publication. The information is collected, edited and written in the Public Information Office Ext., 74.

Dateline

Published fortnightly for the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine Community

Vol. 1/ No. 14
June 18, 1976

Dr. Budd accepts TCOM post

Dr. Michael L. Budd, a project staff member in the Office of Medical Education Research and Development (OMERAD) at Michigan State University, has been named director of admissions, effective July 1. Earlene McElroy, who has been serving as acting director of admissions and registrar for over a year, will become registrar and assistant director of admissions.

Dr. Budd, who has been active in the development of admissions procedures at MSU-College of Osteopathic Medicine, received his Ph.D. degree in higher education with minor emphasis on medical education from MSU in 1975, an M.A. degree in English from the University of Michigan in 1970 and a B.A. degree in English and Latin from Albion College in 1968. His dissertation was on research in instructional methodology and has been reported at the Association of American Medical Colleges.

While he was a Fellow in the OMERAD and working toward his doctor's degree, Dr. Budd worked with admissions projects in the College of Osteopathic Medicine and College of Human Medicine, student affairs and physician-educator program.

Dr. Budd has served on the Promotion and Tenure Committee and Fellow's Admission Committee at MSU. He holds membership in the Eaton Rapids Education Assn., Michigan Education Assn. and National Education Assn.

The new director of admissions is married and he and his wife, Lynn, have two children, Amy and Richard. Dr. Budd is the son of Dr. Linton Budd, a practicing osteopathic physician in Carson City, Mich.

Mrs. Slagle named SFA officer

Judy Slagle, secretary to Dr. Marion E. Coy, founding president, has been named financial aid officer pending approval of the North Texas State University Board of Regents, TCOM's governing body, according to Dr. Gustave Ferre, vice-president for medical affairs, ad interim.

Dr. Ferre said a recommendation will be made to the regents asking that Mrs. Slagle be made director of financial aid. Mrs. Slagle replaces Linda Cumming who was transferred to the physical plant office as senior secretary.

Mrs. Slagle, who has been with TCOM since July 1972, is a native of Grass Lake, Mich., but has lived in Fort Worth for the past 25 years. She is currently attending Texas Christian University studying business administration. Other colleges she has attended are the University of Tulsa and the University of Michigan.

Prior to joining TCOM she was a real estate agent and acting executive secretary to the Texas Osteopathic Medical Assn. She is a member of the Petroleum Landmen's Wives, Chi Omega sorority, Pan American Round Table, Ridglea Country Club, Petroleum Club and is a charter member of the Desk & Derrick. Mrs. Slagle is married to Melvin M. Slagle who is in the oil business in Fort Worth. She has one son, Terry.

Abe Herman joins Dean's Council

A. M. "Abe" Herman, one of the nation's leading authorities in the area of law and the press, has been named to the TCOM Dean's Advisory Council. Herman's appointment to a two-year term was approved at the June 3 meeting of the North Texas State University Board of Regents.

Herman has specialized for many years in newspaper, radio and television libel and is the author of "Freedom of the Press." He was graduated from The University of Texas at Austin in 1927 with a doctor of jurisprudence degree. A member of the Fort Worth-Tarrant County Bar Assn., State Bar of Texas and American Bar Assn., Herman was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court in 1948.

Herman served as legal counsel to TCOM during the time it was a privately supported college. He is general counsel for the Amon G. Carter Foundation and Fort Worth Osteopathic Hospital.

Publication schedule being set

The Public Information Office is in the process of preparing a publication schedule for the 1976-77 academic year. Since all publication work is scheduled through the North Texas State University Print Shop, it is necessary to schedule in advance the design, production and press time that will be needed for each publication.

Any department or office planning and budgeting publications for the upcoming year is asked to contact Verlie McAlister, coordinator of public information, to be placed on the publication schedule and for assistance in preparing the publication, according to Dr. Ralph L. Willard, dean.

Ms. McAlister said the Public Information Office offers editing and design services to any department or office preparing publications. She added that a publication schedule form will be sent to each department head within the week which should be returned to the Public Information Office by July 20.

Library sets summer hours

Summer hours for the Medical Library are in effect with the Library closing at 10 p.m., according to Joan Swaim, director of library services. The Library will continue to open at 8 a.m. Monday-Friday. Closing time for Friday will be 5 p.m. Weekend hours are 9 a.m.-3 p.m., Saturday and 2-10 p.m. Sunday. Regular Library hours will resume Sept. 1.

Regents approve budget

At the North Texas State University Board of Regents regular meeting June 3, the regents, acting as TCOM's governing body, approved a $6,877,881 budget for the 1976-77 academic year.

The board also approved the president's recommendations for the personnel changes including the hiring of Dr. Russell Gamber as associate professor of general and family practice effective Sept. 1, Dr. Michael Budd as director of admissions effective July 1, Elizabeth Peterson as accountant II effective July 1 and either an accountant I or II, effective July 1. Approval was also given for the reassignment of Dr. James B. Reeves from assistant dean, basic health sciences, to a full-time teaching position as professor of microbiology. In other action the regents approved: * alterations to the clinic at 3513 Mattison St. at $20,000, and

* alterations to the Camp Bowie Clinic for the department of obstetrics and gynecology at $4,500.

Development office makes request

In order for there to be a complete accounting of gifts to TCOM, all monies given to TCOM, including memorials, should be channeled through the development office, according to Ray Stokes, director of development. Stokes said any special requests of donors will be honored and a restriction placed on the gift, if so stated.

"Whenever possible TCOM deposits its donations, pledges and memorials in one of three funds in the North Texas State University Educational Foundation, namely the Excellence Fund, the Loyalty Fund and the Memorial Fund. Otherwise, the gift goes into the general fund or a restricted fund for a specific purpose," Stokes said.

Stokes explained that unrestricted large gifts are deposited in the Excellence Fund for capital purposes and monies deposited in the Loyalty Fund are used for maintenance and operational expenses not clearly defined as budgetary items approved for state funding. Memorials, he said, will be expended appropriately at the discretion of the president and Board of Regents.

A gift of $1,000 or more entitles the donor to membership in the President's Council and TCOM Sustainers, he said.

People, places, things

DR. RALPH L. WILLARD, dean, is on active duty June 14-25 with the U.S. Air Force Reserve Medical Corps at Yakota Hospital, Japan...DR. ROLLIN E. BECKER of Dallas, associate professor of osteopathic philosophy, principles and practice, has had an article entitled "Craniosacral Trauma in the Adult" published in the May issue of Osteopathic Annals...RAY STOKES, director of development, has been named chairman of the upcoming United Way campaign...DR. JOHN GAUGL, associate professor of physiology, and DR. ROBERT KAMAN, assistant professor of biochemistry, have been elected 1978 program chairman and vice-chairman for the National Osteopathic Research Conference (NORC)...presenting papers at the 1976 NORC March 12-13 in Chicago were DR. ANDRAS G. LACKO, associate professor of biochemistry, "Possible Links Between Plasma Cholesterol Metabolism and Athero-